

Introduction

- I. What we have learned about Solomon and the Shulamite leads us to the scene described in the text - their wedding day.
- II. Marriage is ordained by God to teach us about our relationship with Christ - Christ and the church

The Wedding Day

I. The Glorious Groom

A. In vs. 7 we read: Behold his bed! He is a husband who will protect and provide for his wife.

B. We learn from this what a man is called to do for his husband and how a man is to prepare himself to be a husband - protect and provide.

II. The Beautiful Bride

A. Solomon's breath is taken away by the beauty of the Shulamite. He notices 7 things:

B. From this we learn how a husband is to view his wife, not only on their wedding day and night, but throughout marriage. We learn what a godly woman is to be focused on.

III. The Everlasting Significance

A. The text points us to something higher and better.

B. This wedding day points us to our marriage to Christ.